

Memory of a Sister

Words & Music by: Luann Avalos

Intro: A/D/A/D

A D A E
Many years ago this little girl was born, to share your light to the world.
A D A E
As this child grew, Your love pulling her through while you waited for the time
Bm F#m Bm E
On that special day when Yahweh called her name, there was no turning back.

A Bm A
She would give her heart to you, knowing through her trials you would be true
Bm E A
A servant she would be, like a candle in the wind, her lamp never did grow dim.

A D A E
My life has been changed to know this woman of faith as we walked down the same pathway
A D A E A
Little did she know as a stranger to the fold, how her love would teach me

Cm Em Cm Em Bm E
A daughter and two sons and in the life of her husband her memory will carry on

A Bm A
As they take the love she gave, and share with all who come their way
Bm
Like a seed that was sown, her fruit will be known

D A
In the life of her family

Bm E A
May this love never fade...
